Prices Move Upward in Wall Street

Some Show of Energy Manifest Upon the Part of the Professional Operators.

EW YORK, June 8.-Tuesday's upward movement of prices was carried over into today's market, and with some show of energy on the of the professional operators a respeciable and quite representative showarse of the trading. There was nothing the tone of the market, however, nor in volume of dealings and width of fluctions to warrant the supposition that ons to warrant the support of small things had passed away, market become extremely languid at tigher level; and the buying gave eviclay of simarket become extremely langual at a higher level, and the buying gave evine of quick exhaustion.

It is not important to discover the ises for so insignificant a movement, it so far as general causes operated, a tinctly hopeful feeling over the progress the making of the crops was petcepte. The day's weather news withstood a feeling and prepared the speculative and to discount to some extent any fiscable features of the Government's inthly report of grain condition as of nel to be given out on Friday. ## PRICE OF POULTRY IS KNOCKED DOWN

Carload of Navel Oranges Comes in-No More Hood River Straw-

OULTRY was reduced in price earlier than was expected. It had been supposed that the fall would come by the end of the week, but the commission houses announced yesterday that dressed hens would be 16 cents a pound and live poultry 15 cents. This amounts to a drop of 1 cent a pound Live brotlers still maintain their old figure at $1.50 per dozen, but it is expected that this price will also be reduced soon. A surprise was sprung on the market yesterday in the shape of a carload of naval oranges. Some three weeks ago it was said that the season was over for navels, but this carload comes in very good shape. The shrinkage is no larger than it was before they left off coming in regularly, and the flavor is very good. The price is $2.5 a case. Hood River strawberries are almost over now. A consignment came in yesterday, but like that of the day before, it was in very poor shape, and none are expected from that region today. Utah berries will be the mainstay of the market for the next week. Black cherries came down in price from $1.50 to $1.25 a box. These are improving now both in size and flavor. Utah orchards are expected to be sending in their cherries within the next few days.

One carload of new positioes was received in Sait Lake yesterday, and these are selling half a cent a pound cheaper than before Cabbage underwent a similare reduction, and is selling at $24 cents. A shipment of okra also came in. The price of this is $1.50 per crate. good shape. The shrinkage is no larger merous selling sales. The close was at the low point. July opened unchanged to the higher at 49½ to 49%c, sold down to 45%c and closed at 48%448%c. Local receipis were 237 cars, with 37 of contract grade.

Oats were the strongest of the grains, and showed only a slight loss. After opening unchanged to a shade higher at 25%25% to 39%c. July ranged between 25% and 40c and closed at 35%c. Local receipts were 192 cars.

An advance of 16 to 15c in hog prices caused a strong time in provisions early, but during the latter part of the session the initial gain was lost on profit-taking. Weakness of corn was partly responsible for the late selling. At the close September pork was down 12½c. September lard was off 2½c at $6.61½. Ribs closed 597½c lower at 37.97½.

Estimated receipis for tomorrow: Wheat 25 cars; corn, 37 cars; onts, 57 cars; hogs, 32,000 head.
